

Requesting an I-20 Program Extension

If you are not able to finish your program by the end date noted on your I-20, you may request an extension of your program.

Deadline for Extensions

An extension of your I-20 must be completed before the end date on the document. If your I-20 expires while you are still a student, you may be considered in violation of your status.

Application Instructions

- Complete the I-20 Extension Request Form (PDF)
- Have your academic adviser sign the I-20 form Extension form
- Attach a copy of your valid passport ID page.
- Attach a bank statement/proof of funding
- Turn in the I-20 Extension form and all the required documents to the ISSS office
- If your extension is approved, you will receive an email message from IS to let you know when you can pick up your new I-20. It usually takes 5 business days to prepare a new I-20.

WSU Rochester Campus

Students at WSU Rochester Campus can get their I-20 extended by mail or by visiting in person. Please contact is@winona.edu to find out when an international student adviser will be visiting WSU Rochester.

Short term & Exchange Students

Short term & Exchange Students must receive approval from their home institution first if they plan to extend their I-20.
